

XM Radio offers me traffic and weather on a continuous repeat, which help me keep up with the changing traffic patterns on a moment to moment basis. The traffic reports that XM Radio provide are more concise and cover the tertiary (local) roads.

I feel that since I'm paying for the service the NAB has no right to prevent XM Radio from giving their subscriber what they want.

I believe the NAB is more worried about their profits rather than moving ahead with the times.